Dance winners

The owner of an executive recruiting firm and a credit union employee topped the Southwest regional championships for the nationwide Marlboro country dance competition. Keith Fisher, the recruiter from Aurora, and Teresa Eastwood, of Denver, won first place and $1,500 in the Marlboro Country Nights Dance Showdown '94 in Oklahoma City. The couple now advances to the nationals finals, which will be held Dec. 7 in Dallas. Winner of the finals will receive $10,000. The Showdown is conducted at 125 clubs across the nation and offers $150,000 in total prize money.
